

GERONTOLOGICAL NURSES ASSOCIATION OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

EDUCATION AWARDS

GNABC believes education is an ongoing process in nursing, especially in these rapidly changing times. Education awards are available to members of GNABC that are furthering their education. The number and amount of the awards will be dependant upon the financial status of GNABC for the granting year.

If you meet the eligibility criteria listed below you are encouraged to send in your application now. The successful candidate will be announced at the AGM.

Eligibility Criteria:

- ◆ GNABC member in good standing for the past two years.
- ◆ Registered in good standing with CRNBC, CLPNBC or CRPNBC.
- ◆ Full time or part time enrolment in a post-basic program or course in a recognized educational institution at the time of accepting the award OR be registered to write the CNA Gerontological nursing certification examination.
- ◆ Courses undertaken must be in gerontology nursing or toward a nursing degree.
- ◆ Demonstrate an interest and potential in a career in gerontological nursing.
- ◆ Priority will be given to first-time applicants. However, candidates that have previously received an award may apply again.

Deadline for Submissions:
